Tuesday, November 12, 2002 • 8:30 a.m. • Room 414 State Capitol

8:30 1. Committee Business

- Call to order - Senator David Gladwell
- Approval of the minutes of the October 29, 2002 meeting

2. Proposal for Salt Lake County Fire Services

Salt Lake County plans to propose in the 2003 General Session some changes to Title 17A, Chapter 2, Part 4, County Service Areas. A representative of the Salt Lake County mayor's office will brief the subcommittee on the proposed changes.

- Alan Dayton, Deputy Mayor, Salt Lake County

3. Followup - Salt Lake County Jail Special Service District

S.B. 241, Special District Amendments, was passed in the 2001 General Session. The bill added jail service to the list of services that a special service district could provide. The bill was intended to allow Salt Lake County to form a special service district for jail service. In the October 15th subcommittee meeting, Sheriff Kennard reported on the county's experience regarding this issue. A representative of the Salt Lake County Council requested an opportunity to present some recommendations at the November 12th meeting.

- Sheriff Aaron Kennard
- Fred Finlinson, Attorney with Callister, Nebeker & McCullough

4. Draft Legislation

During previous meetings, the subcommittee requested draft legislation be prepared. Draft legislation will be presented for the subcommittee's consideration.

- Review of draft legislation - Robert H. Rees, Committee Staff Attorney

5. Subcommittee Report

The subcommittee is scheduled to report its recommendations to the full interim committee on Wednesday, November 20th.
